DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 37,38,41 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rudibaugh. See paper number 11 for this rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claim 39 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rudibaugh. See paper number 11 for this rejection.

Claims 40,43-64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rudibaugh as applied to claim 37 above, and further in view of Gulke. See paper number 11 for this rejection.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 42 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 10/8/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants are allowed to label or call their apparatus elements whatever they want within reason, but clearly the safety device is only a perforated plate and this is shown in Rudibaugh. Gulke is being used to show the concept of using a sensor chip in a blade for various reasons and to account for various data. The particular data being used would have been a design choice only based on what the user wants to sense.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
